Media Kit

MaltaCEOs.mt, the leading corporate and C-level online portal for business leaders, CEOs, entrepreneurs, business people, professionals and people in management, is launching a new high-profile online series of 50 interviews, spread throughout 2022, featuring prominent business people, aspiring young entrepreneurs, C-level executives, professionals and people in management. The 50 Business Leaders 2022 will feature both prominent and as well as aspiring business leaders of all ages, and from all walks of the C-level life and business circles.

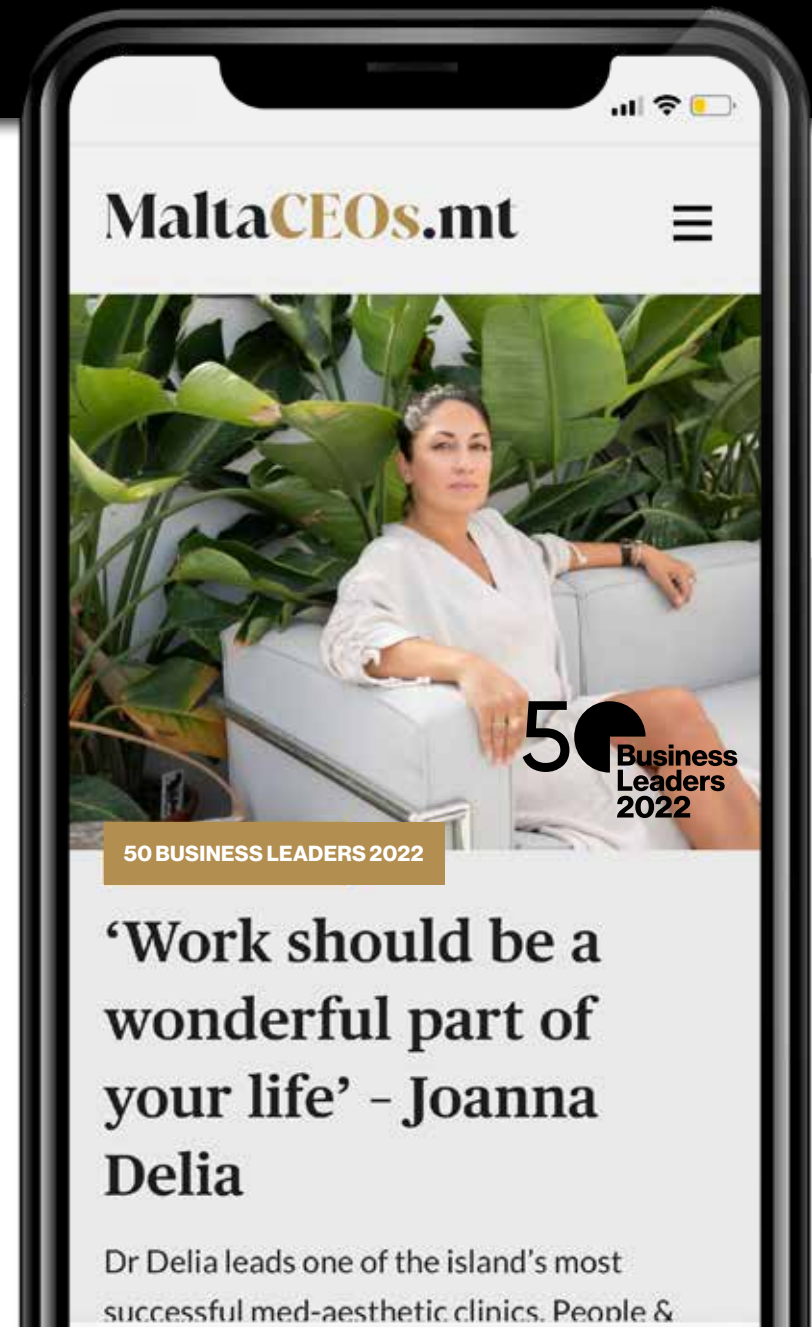

50 Business Leaders 2022 is an innovative platform that sheds light on each of the 50 leaders' business success story, and their journey in the world of business. The online interviews discuss the individual's take on vision, goals and their evolving skills that have shaped them to become the leaders they are today. The 50 Business Leaders 2022 also provides a perfect opportunity for a company or any business concern to set its own corporate and business agenda, linking the timing of the interview with anything that matters to them and their business concern, such as combining it with an important announcement, communication or news, or as part of a recruitment strategy or campaign to pave the way to attract better C-level personnel.

50 Business Leaders 2022

With the 50 Business Leaders 2022, it is also possible to link the interview with an executive promotion, or with the retirement of a business leader, or with a business merger, or the launch of a new product or service.

The 50 Business Leaders 2022 also showcases the intricate legacy of family businesses that have become an institution in their own right, by featuring both young, as well as veteran, business leaders within the legacy of family business institutions.
